

Free Hepatitis B Screening & Vaccination

Location: Self-Help for the Elderly San Mateo Center
(Central Park)
50 East 5th Avenue, San Mateo

Registration: Starting Thursday May 6th, 2010 at 1:30 pm

Screening & Vaccination: Thursday May 12th, 2010 at 1:30 - 4:00pm

1 out of every 10 Asian Americans has hepatitis B

Many people who have hepatitis B do not know they are infected

If untreated can lead to Liver cancer

Can pass to loved ones

Hepatitis B is easily prevented – vaccine offered at no cost
(regular doctor's office charge $150 per shot, for a total of $450 for the 3-shot series)

Effective treatments are available if infected—Resources for effective treatments are available

Confidential

Sponsored by San Mateo Hep B Free Campaign

Partners of San Mateo Hep B Free: San Mateo County Medical Association, Asian Liver Center at Stanford University, Asian Week Foundation, Hospital Consortium of San Mateo, Hospital Council of Northern and Central California, Mills-Peninsula Health Services, Organization of Chinese Americans-San Mateo Chapter, Peninsula Health Care District, San Mateo County Health System, San Mateo Medical Center, Sequoia Hospital, Sequoia Health Care District, Seton Medical Center, Self-Help for the Elderly.

*This is a trial session, participants are limited to Self-Help for the Elderly San Mateo members and their families.